

At a Glance

Duke Energy North Carolina

Duke Energy (NYSE: DUK) is one of the largest energy holding companies in the U.S., headquartered in Charlotte, N.C.

The Fortune 125 company is transforming its customers' experience, modernizing its energy grid, generating cleaner energy and expanding its natural gas infrastructure to create a smarter energy future for the people and communities it serves.

Duke Energy provides electricity to 7.6 million retail customers in six states. The electric service area's estimated population is 24 million people.

The company also provides natural gas to 1.6 million customers in five states and operates a growing renewable energy portfolio across the U.S.

Visit duke-energy.com for more information.

Unless specifically noted, all data is as of Dec. 31, 2014.

For more than a century, Duke Energy has helped build North Carolina communities, attract jobs and investments and keep the state competitive.

While Duke Energy Carolinas and Duke Energy Progress utility operations in the Carolinas will remain separate for some time, what remains at the very foundation of our company is a continued commitment to serve our communities and provide safe, reliable electric service to our customers every day.

- 114 years of service
- 3.4 million retail customers, representing a population of approximately 7 million people
- Across the Carolinas
- 56,000 service territory square miles
- 19,400 miles of transmission lines (high-voltage lines)
- 170,600 miles of distribution lines
- 42 lakes and more than 3,000 miles of managed shoreline

North Carolina Taxpayer

- 15,990 employees
- 9,890 retirees
- Duke Energy operates assets in communities across North Carolina, providing more than $158 million in property taxes to local governments in 2017

Giving in North Carolina

- In 2017, Duke Energy donated more than $19 million to charitable causes in North Carolina

Economic Development in North Carolina

- In 2017, Duke Energy helped attract about $3.5 billion in capital investments and more than 5,200 jobs to the state

