ROHL Honored for Long-Time Commitment to World Vision Storehouse Program
Crystal Vision Award to be presented to ROHL during Kitchen and Bath Industry Show (KBIS)

Irvine, CA – January 9, 2015 – In recognition of its outstanding commitment to helping families stricken by poverty throughout the United States, international aid organization, World Vision has awarded ROHL its annual Crystal Vision Award. The award will be presented at the 2015 Kitchen and Bath Industry Show (KBIS) in Las Vegas, Nevada, January 20, 2015. ROHL is a longtime supporter of World Vision Storehouse, having donated kitchen and bath faucets and fixtures for distribution to those in need since 2011.

“We are honored to receive the Crystal Vision Award from Storehouse of World Vision. Our partnership with the organization is a core part of our corporate stewardship and social responsibility,” said Lou Rohl, CEO and Managing Partner, ROHL. “As a family owned business, knowing our products are helping families struggling with poverty in the United States to rebuild their homes, and their lives, is gratifying.”

“It is through our corporate supporters, like ROHL, who help to make the Storehouse program such a vital resource to millions of people,” said Efraín Pérez, Jr., Manager Corporate Engagement, World Vision. “Their commitment to improve people’s quality of life and transform houses into homes is unrivaled. We could not be prouder to partner with ROHL to bring critically needed supplies to the thousands of families World Vision serves.”

The Storehouse of World Vision is a network of six warehouses across the United States which receives corporate donations of goods which are made available to local non-profit organizations to aid more than 2.2 million people in low-income communities.
