

MARTHASTEWART

Buckhead Village

Christine Ella, March 5, 2013, <http://www.marthastewart.com/965695/buckhead-village - 964020>

Atlanta's size and traffic are legendary, so the key to navigating its 200-plus neighborhoods is knowing where the gems are. On a recent trip to the industrial area of Westside, Martha discovered (and fell in love with) the culinary market Star Provisions and the restaurant Bacchanalia, as well as the neighboring women's-clothing boutique Ann Mashburn. Just a couple of miles away is Buckhead Village. Known for its Georgian-style mansions and Civil War history, it is experiencing a renaissance, with an influx of distinctly modern newcomers (think artisanal cocktails and rosehip chocolates). It has the dreamy combination of old and new worlds that we find so exciting ... plus, it's easily walkable and provides a sense of this bustling Southern city's great charm, history, and style.

Photos by Rinne Allen

Pieces

Owner Lee Kleinhelter sources vintage furniture from around the world, and then restyles each piece with bright contemporary fabrics and paint.

3234-A Roswell Road, piecesinc.com

LW Chocolatier

Selling European-style handcrafted chocolates for more than 70 years, this family-owned shop offers a tasty array of fillings, from marzipan to Patagonian elderberry.

3060 Peachtree Road NW, Suite 40, lwchocolatier.com.

Pie Shop

A 2010 arrival, Pie Shop has sweet and savory treats baked from scratch, like bourbon pecan pie.

3210 Roswell Road NW, the-pie-shop.com.

Boxwoods Gardens & Gifts

This home-and-garden store carries a wide selection of plants, vintage furniture, and accessories.

100 East Andrews Drive NW, boxwoodsonline.com.

STG Trattoria

Thin-crust Neapolitan-style pizzas and a bar with Italian wines and aperitivo cocktails make this a local hot spot.

102 West Paces Ferry NW, stgtrattoria.com.

Peoples

One of Atlanta's best boutiques for women, featuring the latest from the likes of Chloe, Stella McCartney, and Sonia Rykiel.

3236 Roswell Road, 404-816-7292.