Robert Battle’s Strange Humors and New Productions of Ronald K. Brown’s Grace and Highlights of Historic Ailey Ballets Featured in Five-Week Holiday Season

November 28 – December 30, 2012

NEW YORK – August 1, 2012 — Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, beloved as one of the world’s most popular dance companies and New York City Center’s Principal Dance Company, returns for the 41st consecutive year to the New York City Center stage from November 28, 2012 – December 30, 2012 with exciting performances that have become a joyous holiday tradition.

Artistic Director Robert Battle will continue to surprise and delight audiences with premieres and new productions that expand his vision for the company, adding dynamic choreographic voices to the repertory that challenge Ailey’s extraordinary artists in new ways.

The world premiere of Another Night by in-demand young choreographer Kyle Abraham innovatively fuses the many dynamic facets of American dance, from hip hop to ballet, and showcases the artistry and versatility of the Ailey dancers. Set to Art Blakey & The Jazz Messenger’s rendition of one of Dizzy Gillespie’s seminal compositions, A Night in Tunisia, the new work is being created with the support of commissioning funds from New York City Center and the Hopkins Center for the Arts at Dartmouth, in celebration of the Center’s 50th Anniversary.

Petite Mort, a ballet of breathtaking sensuality and visual surprises, will premiere on the Company marking the first time a work by renowned European choreographer Jiří Kylián will appear in the Ailey repertory. Set to two of Mozart’s most popular piano concertos, the theatrical work features six men and six women intermingling with fencing foils and elaborate ball gowns in an unforgettable battle of the sexes.

From Before is an ensemble piece blending the rhythms of African dance with Caribbean influences beautifully crafted by Garth Fagan, the Tony Award-winning choreographer of The Lion King. The Ailey company premiere is the first time this revered work, which distills movement to its purest form and features a jazzy percussive score by Grammy winner Ralph MacDonald, will be staged for a company other than Garth Fagan Dance.

Artistic Director Robert Battle’s Strange Humors is a thrillingly intense duet set to John Mackey’s propulsive score for strings and African drum. This riveting company premiere pits two men against each other in surprising sequences that ignite with aggression and discord, mischievousness and humor, as the relationship between the two dancers builds to an exciting crescendo.

Ronald K. Brown’s landmark Grace, created for Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in 1999, returns to the repertory in a rapturous, spiritually-charged new production. Infused with Brown’s signature blend of modern dance and West African idioms, this moving journey acknowledging the grace that surrounds us all is set to Duke Ellington’s classic “Come Sunday,” Roy Davis’ hit “Gabriel,” and the powerful rhythms of Fela Kuti’s Afro-Pop.

A new production will be staged of Ailey Classics, a vibrant anthology of highlights from founder Alvin Ailey’s prolific 30-year career — including such audience favorites and classics as Cry, Love Songs and For ‘Bird’ With Love — culminating with his signature masterpiece Revelations, performed in its entirety.

“I’m thrilled to be further expanding Ailey’s diverse repertory with new voices and talented contemporary choreographers that showcase the depth and breadth of the dancers’ artistry. Audiences will experience new treasures, along with encores of last season’s notable works and beloved pieces from Ailey’s rich history, including a program that highlights our founder Alvin Ailey,” said Artistic Director Robert Battle. “Between our Opening Night Gala Benefit and the Season Finale, there will be a variety of special programs that feature live music, all new works and a celebration of two much-admired Ailey family members who will be taking a bow - Sharon Gersten Luckman and Renee Robinson.”

Academy Award-winning actress and comedienne Mo’Nique will serve as Honorary Chair and Honored Guest for the November 28th Opening Night Gala Benefit performance and party that launches the season with a fundraiser to support Ailey’s extensive educational and training programs for young people. The curtain will rise to an encore performance of Ohad Naharin’s Minus 16, an eclectic dance and musical excursion that delights audiences with improvisation and an invitation to join Ailey’s acclaimed dancers onstage. Revelations with live music will provide the inspiring finale for the memorable opening.

A special performance will be held on December 4th celebrating Sharon Gersten Luckman, who is planning to step down in 2013 after over two decades of accomplishments with the Ailey organization—17 of them as the organization’s esteemed Executive Director. Ms. Luckman has strategized and overseen the dramatic growth and success of the entire Ailey organization, including the creation of the organization’s state-of-the-art home - The Joan Weill Center for Dance – and has established one of the most remarkable records in American arts management.

On Sunday, December 9th at 7:30pm, friends and fans will pay tribute to Renee Robinson in her farewell season with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. A revered dancer for over 3 decades, she is the last remaining company member selected by founder Alvin Ailey, the female dancer with the longest tenure in the Company’s history, and the only dancer to have performed under all three Artistic Directors. A former student at The Ailey School and member of Ailey II, Robinson is beloved for both her radiant performances and for her mentorship and generosity in sharing the Ailey legacy with generations of performers.

In addition to performances of Ohad Naharin’s unique and innovative Minus 16 throughout the month, premieres from Ailey’s celebrated 2011 inaugural season led by Robert Battle will appear in the repertory, including modern dance master Paul Taylor’s Arden Court and hip-hop choreographer Rennie Harris’ soul-lifting Home.

A variety of 19 premieres, new productions, repertory favorites and classic works will be performed, such as Robert Battle’s explosive The Hunt and Alvin Ailey’s sparkling Night Creature and Memoria, a moving homage to the renowned teacher Joyce Trisler that is performed with an exuberant cast spotlighting talented young dancers from The Ailey School.

Mr. Ailey’s beloved Revelations, an American classic acclaimed as a must-see for all and recognized by a U.S. Senate resolution, will also be performed with live music on December 15th and 16th, and with an expanded cast of 50 dancers including members of Ailey II and The Ailey School on Saturday and Sunday matinees through December 16th.

A special 2012 season highlights finale program will bring an exciting finish to the season on December 30th. The full season schedule is attached (subject to change).

In addition to the season, Mr. Battle has also scheduled the second year of the New Directions Choreography Lab, a major program launched last year to serve the entire field of dance. Assisting choreographers in developing their work, the program will again grant resident fellowships to four emerging and mid-career artists, offering a stipend, the use of gifted dancers from The Ailey School, creative mentorships and rehearsal time at The Joan Weill Center for Dance. Unlike other programs that require the production and presentation of a final performance or commission, Ailey’s lab enables choreographers to focus solely on the process of choreography as a creative experience, free from all restricting expectations or deadlines.

Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater inspires all in a universal celebration of the human spirit using the African-American cultural experience and the American modern dance tradition. Having embarked on an exciting new era in Ailey history, Ailey’s acclaimed dancers will move audiences in a diverse repertory of premieres, new productions and repertory classics by a variety of choreographers, revealing once again why Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater is one of the world’s most beloved dance companies.

The 2012 Season Program: Highlights

For his second season as Artistic Director, Mr. Battle has chosen to add dynamic new choreographic voices to expand Ailey’s diverse repertory. The premieres and new productions provide a platform for a rising young voice with multi-faceted choreography representing the broad range of American dance, celebrates a revered work by an American modern dance master, and exposes Ailey audiences and dancers to a renowned international choreographer whose work is being performed by Ailey for the first time. The new season presents a special program featuring eight of the founder’s works, a compelling piece by the company’s new leader, and a new production of a beloved repertory classic.

World Premiere

Another Night (2012) choreographed by Kyle Abraham
Music: Dizzy Gillespie

The world premiere of Another Night by in-demand young choreographer Kyle Abraham innovatively fuses the many dynamic facets of American dance, from hip hop to ballet, and showcases the artistry and versatility of the Ailey dancers. Set to Art Blakey & The Jazz Messenger’s rendition of one of Dizzy Gillespie’s seminal compositions, A Night in Tunisia, the new work for 10 dancers is being created with the support of commissioning funds from New York City Center and the Hopkins Center for the Arts at Dartmouth, in celebration of the Center’s 50th Anniversary. Over the past few years, Abraham has received numerous accolades and awards for his dancing and choreography including the 2012 Jacob's Pillow Dance Award, which honors outstanding, visionary dance artists; a Bessie Award for Outstanding Performance in Dance for his work in The Radio Show; a Princess Grace Award for Choreography; and recognition as one of Dance Magazine’s 25 To Watch. A recipient of a BFA from SUNY Purchase and an MFA from NYU Tisch School of the Arts, he currently teaches his unique approach to post-modern dance throughout the United States, in addition to performing, choreographing and leading his own company, Abraham.In.Motion.

Robert Battle comments: “Kyle Abraham is someone I’ve known and watched for quite some time. His work is provocative, with a diverse dance vocabulary that embodies a variety of traditions and styles. It is the right time for him to create a new work on the dancers of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater and I’m proud to be able to provide this platform for him.”

Company Premiere

Petite Mort (1991) choreographed by Jiří Kylián
Music: Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

The company premiere of Petite Mort, a ballet of breathtaking sensuality and visual surprises that will showcase the sensuality, humor and technical prowess of Ailey’s dancers, marks the first time a work by renowned European choreographer Jiří Kylián will appear in the Ailey repertory. Set to two of Mozart’s most popular piano concertos (Piano Concerto in A Major – Adagio, and Piano Concerto in C Major – Andante), the theatrical work features six men and six women intermingling with fencing foils and elaborate ball gowns in an unforgettable battle of the sexes. Born in Czechoslovakia in 1947, Kylián was a long-time Artistic Director of Nederlands Dans Theater who became recognized as one of the most influential choreographers of the past three decades, receiving many international awards and honors.

Robert Battle comments: “Jiří Kylián is one of the top international choreographers and Petite Mort, one of his best works, will be his first piece set on the Company. I was introduced to him when I was a student at Juilliard. I find Kylian’s partnering and his movement vocabulary reflective of some of the modern dance pioneers. This exquisite work will stretch the dancers and the way people see Ailey.”

From Before (1978) choreographed by Garth Fagan

From Before is an ensemble piece blending the rhythms of African dance with Caribbean influences beautifully crafted by Garth Fagan, the Tony Award-winning choreographer of The Lion King. The Ailey company premiere is the first time this revered, quintessential work, which distills movement to its purest form and features a jazzy percussive score by Grammy winner Ralph MacDonald, will be staged for a company other than Garth Fagan Dance. This is not Fagan’s first time working with the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater - his first work for the company, entitled Jukebox for Alvin, premiered in 1993. His many honors include the prestigious 1998 Tony Award for Best Choreography for The Lion King, as well as an Astaire Award, and a Laurence Olivier Award, and he holds an honorary doctorate from the Juilliard School. Currently, Fagan is collaborating with Grammy-winning musician and composer Wynton Marsalis on the world premiere of his newest work, Lighthouse/Lightning Rod at Brooklyn Academy of Music (BAM) this September in celebration of BAM’s 150th anniversary and Garth Fagan Dance’s 40th anniversary. Robert Battle comments: “Garth Fagan has a unique and, in a way, abstract approach to movement. There is an element of purity in his work - he’s trying to show all of these different methods and how they mirror one another, but how they're totally separate in some ways. Garth Fagan is a true original and From Before is a quintessential representation of his artistry.”

Strange Humors (1998) choreographed by Robert Battle

Artistic Director Robert Battle’s Strange Humors is a thrillingly intense duet set to a propulsive score for strings and African drum by John Mackey, a fellow Juilliard classmate with Mr. Battle. This riveting company premiere pits two men against each other in surprising sequences that ignite with aggression and discord, mischievousness and humor, as the relationship between the two dancers builds to an exciting crescendo. Robert Battle comments: “Strange Humors is a physically challenging duet containing influences of tango, Martha Graham and hints of hip hop and martial arts, with unexpected leaps and falls, that break the viewer’s false sense of security. The title of this work was inspired by the writings of Maya Angelou – ‘When I think of death, and of late the idea has come with alarming frequency, I seem at peace with the idea that a day will dawn when I will no longer be among those living in this valley of strange humors.’”

New Production

Grace (1999) choreographed by Ronald K. Brown

Ronald K. Brown’s landmark Grace, created for Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in 1999, returns to the repertory in a rapturous, spiritually-charged new production. Infused with Brown’s signature blend of modern dance and West African idioms, this moving journey acknowledging the grace that surrounds us all is set to Duke Ellington’s classic "Come Sunday," Roy Davis’ hit "Gabriel," and the powerful rhythms of Fela Kuti’s Afro-Pop. Born in Brooklyn, Brown has created and presented dances since 1985 with his company Evidence and has received the Bessie Award, a Guggenheim Fellowship, the American Dance Festival Humphrey/Weidman/Limon Award, among others. Most recently he received accolades for his Astaire award-winning choreography for the Broadway revival of The Gershwins’ Porgy and Bess. Robert Battle comments: “Brown’s choreography uses African dance in a unique and potent way. Grace is a brilliant work, and an important part of the Ailey repertory. From the beautiful opening solo set to Duke Ellington’s “Come Sunday,” there are elements that represent both the religious and secular. The strong tension between these two opposites, and how they sometimes reflect one another, remains gripping right to the very end when the dancers exit upstage in white.”

A new production will be staged of Ailey Classics, a vibrant anthology of highlights from founder Alvin Ailey’s prolific 30-year career — including such audience favorites and classics as Memoria, Night Creature, Phases, Opus McShann, Love Songs, For ‘Bird’ - With Love, and Hidden Rites — culminating with the beloved classic Revelations, performed in its entirety. Robert Battle comments: “I remember being that 12-year-old boy from Miami who was bused from my school to see Alvin Ailey’s Revelations for the first time and now I have the opportunity to present an evening dedicated to his work, so that others can have that transformative experience while we celebrate his genius and generosity. Mr. Ailey said it so well: ‘Dance comes from the people and should always be delivered back to the people.’ He wanted people to be in awe of what these dancers are able to do, along with the variety of great musicians who also inspired him, but he wanted audiences to see reflections of themselves on stage.”

ABOUT ALVIN AILEY AMERICAN DANCE THEATER

Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, recognized by U.S. Congressional resolution as a vital American “Cultural Ambassador to the World,” grew from a now-fabled March 1958 performance in New York that changed forever the perception of American dance. Founded by Alvin Ailey, and guided by Judith Jamison beginning in 1989, the Company is now led by Robert Battle, whom Judith Jamison chose to succeed her on July 1, 2011. Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater has performed for an estimated 23 million people in 71 countries on 6 continents, promoting the uniqueness of the African-American cultural experience and the preservation and enrichment of the American modern dance tradition. In addition to being the Principal Dance Company of New York City Center, where its performances have become a year-end tradition, the Ailey company performs annually at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC, the Auditorium Theatre in Chicago, the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County in Miami, The Fox Theatre in Atlanta, Zellerbach Hall in Berkeley, CA and at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark where it is the Principal Resident Affiliate, and appears frequently in other major theaters throughout the United States and the world during extensive yearly tours. The Ailey organization also includes Ailey II (1974), a second performing company of emerging young dancers and innovative choreographers; The Ailey School (1969), one of the most extensive dance training programs in the world; Ailey Arts in Education & Community Programs, which brings dance into the classrooms, communities and lives of people of all ages; and The Ailey Extension (2005), a program offering dance and fitness classes to the general public, which began with the opening of Ailey’s permanent home—the largest building dedicated to dance in New York City, the dance capital of the world —named The Joan Weill Center for Dance, at 55th Street at 9th Avenue in New York City.
