The Ailey Extension Offers Unique Workshop for Aspiring Hip-Hop Dancers on October 2nd & 3rd

The Ailey Extension partners with Monsters of HipHop in an exclusive 2-day workshop featuring Hip-Hop choreographers Lisette Bustamante and Chonique Sneed at The Ailey Studios on Saturday & Sunday, October 2nd & 3rd.

Monsters of HipHop will include master classes on Saturday and an inspirational seminar designed for young dancers to expand their opportunities in the industry. Most workshops will be observed by select talent agencies and offer special giveaways and awards, including Monsters of HipHop scholarships and free Ailey Extension classes. This event is a must-attend for all New York City dancers looking to set the bar as the next rising star!

Space is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis and registration is available online. Registration only available through Monsters of HipHop – if space is available, admission to classes will be sold at The Ailey Extension one hour prior to event start.

Prices:

$25.00/class (before 10/2)

$45.00/2 classes

$30.00 for workshop (before 10/2)

$70.00 includes both master classes plus Creating Opportunities Seminar ($10 savings)
